

STATIONERY

A STEADY STREAM
of stationery and office supplies flows from the store to our customers, and another stream replenishes the stock. This is kept up to a condition where betterment is impossible.

from the best manufacturers in each line fills our shelves, and little money will transfer the ownership. The proof of the value is in the quality.

Several prominent ladies of Barre are co-operating with a committee in Montpelier for the success of the concert to be given by the Vermont Festival Band, Mandolin and Guitar club, in the Blanchard opera house, May 23 and 24 for the benefit of the Montpelier Military band. This band is practically an inter-city organization, many of its members hailing from Barre. And our people are gladly assisting in the enterprise in return for courtesies extended by the band and Wilder's orchestra.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

The Horse Knew Him.

"Horses sometimes have wonderful memories," said a Kansas City man yesterday. "Six years ago," he continued, "I sold a four-year-old driving horse in this city. I had taken the animal as a colt from the herd and broken him to ride and drive. He loved me and I thought the world of him. I had to sell him, though. Yesterday I stopped at Ninth and Walnut streets to take a car. There was a driving horse standing there and I stroked his neck. The horse sniffed at my hand and whinnied softly. It was my old pet, 'Billy,' I almost yelled. Billy, seeing I knew him, whinnied again and actually tried to lick my hand. I missed three cars talking of old times to that horse. 'When I left,' concluded the speaker, 'I had the address of the horse's owner. It won't be long, I think, until I have Billy back in my own barn.'—Kansas City Times.

The supreme court decides that a state has a right to destroy a distillery's business without compensation. Well, maybe this isn't right. As a radical prohibitionist, I am personally in favor of paying for every distillery, brewery and saloon that is closed up and forced out of business by prohibition every dollar of its highest market value at the time its market was good. This is only fair and just right.
Then I am in favor of compelling the distillery, brewery and saloon to pay one hundred cents on the dollar for every business that they have closed up and ruined. This is only right and just and fair, too. Let us strike a balance with the distillery, square up the accounts on both sides, and the fellow who comes out in debt must agree to pay up like a man, no matter what the supreme court says.

BERLIN.

Arthur B. Hill arrived home from Saranac Lake Saturday.
C. H. Reed of Northfield was in town Wednesday on business.

C. H. Stewart and C. G. Poor each did a fairly good boat business Sunday.

H. A. Thurber, the printer, is moving to Williamstown, where he has rented a farm.

Miss Clark, teacher in No. 2, was unable to teach Wednesday by reason of sickness.

B. C. Alexander, carrier on Route 4, is again on duty, having recovered from the injuries received some time ago, when he was thrown from his team by a frightened horse.

"Peddler" Flint, who was killed at the West Berlin crossing Thursday afternoon, was a man of a genial and sunny nature, and his visits at regular intervals will be missed by Berlin people.

The New England people are to run another line of telephone from Montpelier. From the Corner it will probably run to the west of the lake, as far south as A. E. Buck's, who with L. Baneroff and G. W. Pratt are among the new subscribers. Another line is needed here as the present lines are over-loaded.

A Lost Opportunity.

"Nice girl, eh?"
"Oh, yes; she's pretty enough, but she hasn't much sense. Why, she had a chance to marry me and refused."
